

Cincinnati Islamic Center Food Pantry

History

The Cincinnati Islamic Center Food Pantry began in 2006, as an idea where several men of the Cincinnati Islamic Center were trying to come up with ways to serve our community better.

Mission

The Cincinnati Islamic Center Food Pantry strives to be an outreach agency providing food subsidies and referral services for families and individuals in partnership with other community organizations. The Pantry is working to foster a caring atmosphere for the welfare of our community. We are dedicated to maintaining continuous growth in services to assist our clients to improve their quality of life. Our intended outcome is to help meet the basic human needs of people in our community.

Our Services

The Cincinnati Islamic Center Food Pantry provides food and referral services to Westwood Ohio residents in need. We are a Volunteer Organization committed to providing food items to Westwood residents in need regardless of race, gender, or religious affiliation.

Choose Pantry

Qualified clients may grocery shop once a month or on an emergency need basis. The opportunity for clients to choose food, allows them to maintain their dignity and independence.

Referral Services

Our program provides referrals to other agencies where clients may be eligible for additional services.
